

The Apostles: _____ the Truth v 29-32

- Did not change their convictions
- Did not change their message
- Did not change their lifestyle

Gamaliel: _____ the Truth v 33-39

- He rejected the evidence
- He assumed history would repeat itself (given time the effort will fade)
- He remained in neutral when a decision was necessary

The Church: _____ the Truth v 40-42

- Persecution did not stop them from witnessing
- They balanced proclamation with instruction (what to believe and why)
- Christ remained the topic of their preaching/teaching

Next Week:
Stephen, the Martyr
Lesson 7
Acts 6 & 7

The Apostles: _____ the Truth v 29-32

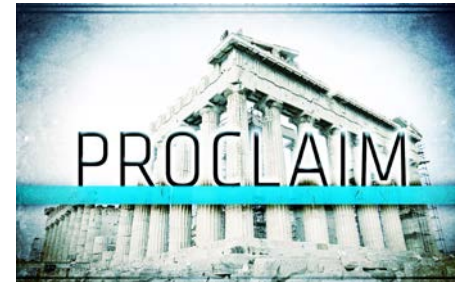

- Did not change their convictions
- Did not change their message
- Did not change their lifestyle

Gamaliel: _____ the Truth v 33-39

- He rejected the evidence
- He assumed history would repeat itself (given time the effort will fade)
- He remained in neutral when a decision was necessary

The Church: _____ the Truth v 40-42

- Persecution did not stop them from witnessing
- They balanced proclamation with instruction (what to believe and why)
- Christ remained the topic of their preaching/teaching

Next Week:
Stephen, the Martyr
Lesson 7
Acts 6 & 7

Pastor's LifeGroup • Study of ACTS

Truth and Consequences
Lesson 6 • Acts 5:17-42

*Not everyone was happy with the success of the early church
so persecution came ...*

The Council: _____ the Truth v 17-28

- Peter and John had defied the law of the Nation
- The witness of the church refuted the doctrine taught by the Jewish leaders
- Religious leaders were filled with envy at the success of the untrained believers

Pastor's LifeGroup • Study of ACTS

Truth and Consequences
Lesson 6 • Acts 5:17-42

*Not everyone was happy with the success of the early church
so persecution came ...*

The Council: _____ the Truth v 17-28

- Peter and John had defied the law of the Nation
- The witness of the church refuted the doctrine taught by the Jewish leaders
- Religious leaders were filled with envy at the success of the untrained believers