

2. The _____ Must Be Revealed

- a. his description
- b. his deception
- c. his destruction

3. The _____ In Light of These Events

- a. Remain true to who we are in Christ
- b. Stand firm in the faith of the Saints
- c. Draw comfort and hope from God's promises

2. The _____ Must Be Revealed

- a. his description
- b. his deception
- c. his destruction

3. The _____ In Light of These Events

- a. Remain true to who we are in Christ
- b. Stand firm in the faith of the Saints
- c. Draw comfort and hope from God's promises

Living in the Light of His Coming

Pastor's LifeGroup
2 Thessalonians

Lesson 2 – 2 Thessalonians 2:1-17

Introduction:

The first letter to the Thessalonians ended each chapter with a promise of the second coming of Christ.

There were many misconceptions concerning the second coming in this church.

Paul explains that before the Lord returns, two events must occur.

1. A _____ Must Come
 - a. Warning abound in the New Testament
The Ephesian brethren / Timothy / Peter warned the Christians in Asia Minor
 - b. A Falling Away Did Come in New Testament Times
It began in the first century / It continues through the years up until now
 - c. A Falling Away Will Continue Until Christ Comes

Living in the Light of His Coming

Pastor's LifeGroup
2 Thessalonians

Lesson 2 – 2 Thessalonians 2:1-17

Introduction:

The first letter to the Thessalonians ended each chapter with a promise of the second coming of Christ.

There were many misconceptions concerning the second coming in this church.

Paul explains that before the Lord returns, two events must occur.

1. A _____ Must Come
 - a. Warning abound in the New Testament
The Ephesian brethren / Timothy / Peter warned the Christians in Asia Minor
 - b. A Falling Away Did Come in New Testament Times
It began in the first century / It continues through the years up until now
 - c. A Falling Away Will Continue Until Christ Comes